

All Is Vanity?

Ecc 1:2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.

Vanity from the Hebrew;

H1892 הָבֵל הָבֵל From H1891; emptiness or vanity; figuratively something transitory and unsatisfactory; often used as an adverb: - altogether, vain, vanity. H1891 הָבֵל A primitive root; to be vain in act, word, or expectation; specifically to lead astray: - be (become, make) vain.

The earth being unsatisfactory, vain, and designed to lead astray.

The design according to God is in that creation is all "good" as mentioned many times in Genesis. We can assume that these negative objectives are related to vanity that is emulating from the one's spirit.

Ecc 1:3-4 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun? One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth for ever.

The earth abideth for ever?

Isaiah 65:17, 22, Rev 21:1 and 2Peter 3:13, states there will be a new earth and heavens.

2Peter 3:13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

Righteousness dwells from within. Righteousness, the new heavens and new earth are spiritually within the soul and you have that eternal promise, by way of your own regeneration or renewing of ones self, establishing a personal relationship with our Lord and God.

Ecc 1:8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

Ecc 1:9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

There is nothing new under the sun meaning that all experiences are the same. A rotation of life in an eternal environment.

What changes are in the evolution of the world your participating in as well as the other souls involved in those experiences.

Note; If a soul chooses to believe in only one flesh life, scriptures will not align with understanding eternity and eternal life.

Ecc 1:10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

Ecc 1:11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

Ecc 1:11 is an interesting verse. This verse shows how God meticulously knows exactly what memory you are to retain from life to life for eternity! This allows the soul to freewill choose what current awareness of life to live without any interference from the past. How much deeper can the love of God be when His work is so precise for all of creation for an eternity!

Ecc 1:13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith.

Ecc 1:14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Taking a look at vexation of spirit from the Hebrew;

H7469 רָעוּת Probably from H7462; a feeding upon, that is, grasping after: - vexation. H7462 רָעָה A primitive root; to tend a flock, that is, pasture it; intransitively to graze (literally or figuratively); generally to rule; by extension to associate with (as a friend).

Since you "can't take it with you", flesh things, you can grow from your spiritual self through the world which is the makeup of your existence. Living life through experiences for the growth through decisions and from the balance of goodness and its opposites.

Experiences only serve the purpose of the experience from the choice of how a soul wishes to live.

Ecc 1:15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

What is crooked and cannot be made straight? The physical life in the flesh.

Ecc 1:16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

Ecc 1:17 And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

Rom 12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Titus 3:5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

2Co 5:17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

1John 4:4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

All created spirits are of God. Because he is greater than he that is in the world. It is safe to assume that all souls have that inheritance, grace, and eternal salvation according to the Word in accordance to each individual living their from their "own" through our Lord, within their own time in their eternity.

What makes all these scriptures a matter of fact is the takeaway on life. For a soul to simply realizing that love is life. Your neighbor is as much a part of One as you are in any situation that is seen through the eyes.

God never changes and neither should you.

1John 4:5-6 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

"They" will have their experiences that promote life and growth within their own eternity in their own eternal "time".

John 15:18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

The definition of hate from the Greek;

G3404 μισέω From a primary word μῖσος misos (hatred); to detest (especially to persecute); by extension to love less.

Hate, detest, love less. Big difference between hate and love less. Its all in your definition and not what you think the world wants you to believe.

If its from the world, or another soul, and not from your own self. Does it serve your own heart felt beliefs?

Do you know what God's definition of hate is?

Ecc 1:18 For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

Verse 18 makes so much sense because the wisdom and knowledge that is gained is not wisdom and knowledge of the world, but tapping into the Word which is in you that being exemplified through the flesh.

To regenerate and live from your true spiritual self on this earth. Why the sorrow? A regeneration leads to the sorrows in different ways.

Contributing regenerated ways that oppose the world;

 A greater state of alignment to your spiritual existence and evolution.*

 A heightened state of well being and inner peace.*

 An elevated state of being transcending from a lower energy experiencing positive personal growth.*

Sorrow is in the lack of connection to the world even though a greater understanding is practiced. A sense of alienation, but the sorrow is amidst peace, love, goodness, and understanding.

The realization of reality from your true spirit which is conflicting to the teachings of the world requiring regeneration or a renewing of the mind.

1Co 2:16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.
